

Beth Israel Congregation of Lexington Park, MD
Constitution
Passed by the Congregation, 1978
Amended April 28, 2024

Preamble

The objective of the Beth Israel Congregation is to be the community center of Conservative Jewish worship, Jewish study, thought, education, fellowship, charity, and community relationships. It shall be the responsibility of the members and officers who compose the Congregation to provide for these needs of the Jewish community at large. This constitution provides the governing rules and regulations to accomplish these objectives, and shall be amended when needed to best achieve the spirit of these objectives.

Article I, Membership

Section 1. Membership shall be open to any person of the Jewish faith.

Section 2. There shall be two types of full membership.

A. Household Membership. All membership privileges shall be extended to married couples and unmarried couples in the same household. At least one member of the couple must be of the Jewish faith. Each couple shall be entitled to two votes in Congregation meetings. If one member is not present at a Congregation meeting, the attending member may cast two votes.

B. Individual Membership. Such membership shall be extended to individuals and shall entitle the member to one vote in Congregation meetings.

Section 3. Associate Membership. For Jewish members who do not reside in Southern Maryland and live at least 75 miles from the synagogue. Associate members may not vote in Congregation meetings nor hold office in the Congregation.

Section 4. Complimentary Membership. Complimentary memberships shall be extended to the following:

- A. Jewish full-time college students.
- B. Jewish citizens of foreign countries resident for less than one year.
- C. Jews currently_serving in the U.S. armed forces in a pay grade of E5 or lower.
- D. New Jewish residents during the first three months of their residence in the community.

Section 5. Honorary Membership. The Executive Committee shall confer such membership on deserving persons who have left the community and shall entitle the honorary member to all complimentary membership privileges. (passed 6/5/88)

Section 6. Privileges of Membership.

A. Full members (Household and Individual members) in good standing shall enjoy the following privileges:

- (1) To attend all meetings of the Congregation.
- (2) To have a voice and a vote at all Congregation meetings.
- (3) To hold office in the Congregation.
- (4) To participate in all religious services in the synagogue.
- (5) To participate in all educational, social, and cultural activities of the Congregation.
- (6) To enroll their children in the Religious School of the Congregation.
- (7) Reduced fees for out-of-town guests for the High Holidays

B. Complimentary membership shall entitle the complimentary member to all of the privileges of membership except that the complimentary member may not vote in Congregation meetings nor hold office in the Congregation.

Section 7. Household, Individual, and Associate Membership become effective with the payment of the member's first quarterly dues. The privileges of membership may be suspended by the Executive Committee of the Congregation.

Article II, Officers

Section 1. The officers of the Congregation shall be:

- A. President,
- B. Vice President,
- C. Recording Secretary,
- D. Corresponding Secretary, and
- E. Treasurer.

Section 2. Only members in good standing shall be eligible to serve as Officers of the Congregation. The members who serve as President and Vice President must be Jewish.

Section 3. Officer Duties. The officers of the Congregation shall perform the duties prescribed by this constitution.

A. The President shall lead the Congregation, preside over Executive Committee and the Board of Directors (further referred to as the “Board”), appoint chairs to all standing committees, and shall represent the Congregation to the community-at-large.

B. The Vice President shall assume the duties in the absence of the President. The Vice President shall coordinate the activities of all committees and is an ex-officio member of all standing committees, except the Executive Committee where the Vice President is a member.

C. The Recording Secretary shall call the roll and record the minutes of Congregation, Board, and Executive Committee meetings. The Recording Secretary is a member of the Executive Committee.

D. The Corresponding Secretary shall communicate all minutes and official notices to the members of the Congregation and, when necessary, to the Jewish community at large, and shall be responsible for the official correspondence of the Congregation.

E. The Treasurer shall collect all Congregation dues, fees, assessments, and donations, and pay all Congregation expenses from these monies as authorized by the Congregation, Board, or the Executive Committee.

Section 4. The Nominating Committee, comprised of the Past President as chairperson and one other member appointed by the Executive Committee, shall select a slate of candidates for their respective offices. The Congregation shall be notified of the slate in writing or by electronic means at least ten days before the election meeting.

Section 5. A Congregation meeting shall be held before the June Board meeting to elect officers. A slate of candidates for its officers shall be put before the Congregation by the Board. Before the election of each officer, additional nominations from the floor shall be permitted.

Section 6. Officers shall be elected for a two-year term that shall begin at the June Board Meeting.

A. Officers may serve multiple terms at the discretion of the Congregation or the Board.

B. In the event of an officer vacancy prior to completion of the term, the Executive Committee shall appoint a replacement to complete that term.

C. The President and the Recording and Corresponding Secretaries are elected in the same year and serve concurrent terms and not concurrent with the Vice President and Treasurer.

D. The Vice President and Treasurer are elected in the same year and serve concurrent terms and not concurrent with the President and Reporting and Corresponding Secretaries.

Article III, Standing Committees

Section 1. The chairs of all standing committees shall be appointed by the President.

Section 2. Only Jewish members may serve as chair of Religious, Talmud, and Membership committees.

Section 3. The standing committees of the Congregation and their duties shall be as follows:

A. Executive Committee. This is a leadership committee made up of the following officers; President serving as its chairman, Vice President, Treasurer, and Recording Secretary. This committee meets as directed by the President to address confidential issues and support timely action where convening the entire board is not practical or necessary.

B. Parliamentarian. The Parliamentarian shall advise the President and the Board on "Robert's Rules of Order" and act as the Historian for the Congregation.

C. Religious Services Committee. This committee shall be in charge of all religious services of the Congregation, subject to the approval of the Board, and will ensure that religious services are held on Jewish holidays and on occasions of special observance, and will advise the Board and Executive Committee on matters of religious ritual.

D. Talmud Torah Committee. This committee shall supervise the Religious School of the Congregation and shall determine policy and formulate rules for the Religious School subject to the approval of the Board.

(1) The Talmud Torah Committee will ensure that the Religious School provides for the teaching of Jewish history, philosophy, culture, and thought to the school-aged Jewish children of the community.

(2) The Chair of the committee shall recruit, vet, recommend to the Board, and supervise Hebrew School Teachers.

(3) In addition, the school shall provide for the teaching of the Hebrew language and the requirements of Bar or Bat Mitzvah, excluding specific Haftorah study.

E. Ways and Means Committee. This committee shall plan and execute special fund-raising events and projects for the Congregation, subject to the approval of the Board.

F. Membership Committee. This committee shall identify and recruit new members from the community and advise the Board of membership applications and new Jewish members in the community.

G. House Committee. This committee shall be responsible for maintaining the synagogue and for supervising the use of the synagogue or other Congregational property, subject to the approval of the Board.

H. Building, Planning and Funding Committee. This committee shall be responsible for the long-range planning of building improvements and expansions for the synagogue, and for the acquisition of funds for the purpose of implementing those plans, subject to the approval of the Board.

I. Publicity Committee. This committee shall be responsible for publicizing all functions and activities of the synagogue to the community through the use of media, subject to the approval of the Board.

J. Newsletter Committee. This committee shall be responsible for publicizing all functions and activities of the Congregation to its members and those who might consider joining the Congregation by publishing a newsletter. The content of the newsletter is subject to the approval of the Board.

K. Security Committee. This committee shall evaluate and recommend physical security needs and protocols to the Board to ensure the safety and security of the synagogue building and those using it. The Committee shall ensure, assess, and periodically evaluate existing procedures and processes for access control, emergency response planning, and security training of the congregation. The committee shall coordinate with the Technology Committee and with county law enforcement as appropriate.

L. Technology Committee. This committee shall evaluate, maintain, and keep current existing technology used by the synagogue for security and other purposes, ensure full compliance with manufacturers' warranties and operational guidance, and coordinate with technology vendors, as required. As directed by the Board, the committee shall recommend and procure technology acquisitions and/or upgrades for the synagogue.

Article IV, Board of Directors

Section 1. The Board of Directors of the Congregation shall be composed of the elected officers of the Congregation, the Chairs of the standing committees, a representative of the Sisterhood of the Congregation, the Immediate Past President of the Congregation, and the Congregation Rabbi, ex officio, as a non-voting member. Chairs of standing committees may serve multiple one-year terms at the discretion of the Congregation or the Board respectively.

Section 2. The Board shall have regular monthly meetings. The dates and times of the meetings shall be set by the President. A quorum for a Board meeting shall consist of a simple majority of its members. All members of the Board shall have one vote. A majority of the Board may also call Board meetings.

Section 3. The proceedings of the Board meetings are, to the greatest extent possible, conducted under the "Robert's Rules of Order".

Section 4. Duties of the Board

A. The Board shall plan and coordinate the overall program of the Congregation. No Congregation function may be scheduled or held without the approval of the Board. Religious functions will take precedence over all other functions.

B. The Board or its representative shall interview all potential employees of the Congregation. Employees may be hired by the President upon the candidate's approval by the Board.

C. The Board shall be the authority for the interpretation of the Constitution.

Article V, Congregation Meetings

Section 1. Congregation shall, at a minimum, meet to elect officers, review the budget, and approve constitutional amendments.

Section 2. All meetings of the Congregation may be held in-person, virtually, or in combination. Meetings of the Congregation may be held as necessary.

Section 3. A quorum is needed to hold a Congregation meeting. For all matters other than Constitution amendments, a quorum consists of one-fourth of the membership, excluding honorary members, associate members, and complimentary members, and includes at least one officer. Quorum threshold for Constitution amendments is found in Article IX Section 2B. Members of a quorum include those attending in-person and virtually and through the use of a quorum proxy—a proxy for the sole purpose of obtaining a quorum and nothing else. A sample quorum proxy is found in Appendix A of this Constitution.

Section 4. Additional meetings of the Congregation may be called under any one of the following circumstances:

A. When the President deems it necessary.

B. By a majority vote of the Executive Committee.

C. Within two weeks after receiving a petition signed by at least one-fourth of the membership, excluding honorary and complimentary members.

Section 5. Voting. Voting shall be conducted at a congregation meeting (in-person, virtual, or in combination), or by electronic or mail-in balloting, or in combination as determined by the Board. If mail-in or electronic ballots are sent to all members of the congregation, then the threshold to pass an amendment(s) is a simple majority of its entire membership.

A. Congregation voting rights are defined in Article 1 Section 2.

B. An enclosed return ballot or instructions for how to vote electronically may be included with the proposed officer slate, constitutional amendment(s), or other proposal brought to the congregation, allowing at least two weeks for ballots to be returned and considered valid.

C. Mail-in or electronic ballots shall be returned to the Recording Secretary.

D. The Recording Secretary will count the returned ballots and the in-person (including those attending virtually) votes with at least two other members of the Executive Committee as witnesses to verify and validate the count.

E. If the number of votes received is less than a simple majority of the quorum or membership as required, the voting period may be extended by the President.

F. A simple majority of the verified and validated ballots (in-person, virtual, mail-in, and electronic) will determine the outcome of the amendment.

Article VI, Budget and Dues

Section 1. The fiscal year of the Congregation shall run from July 1 through June 30.

Section 2. The Board must approve a balanced budget prior to the start of the fiscal year.

Section 3. It is the responsibility of the Treasurer to present a proposed budget for the upcoming fiscal year to the Board, at its regular June meeting, for approval.

A. The budget, as approved by the Board, shall be presented to the Congregation for review at its regular summer meeting for transparency and for the opportunity to amend the Board approved budget. The members in attendance at the meeting may amend the budget by simple majority.

B. A written or electronic copy of the approved budget shall be sent to all Congregation members at least ten days prior to the Congregation budget meeting.

C. An annual meeting for the purpose of presenting to the congregation the Board-approved budget shall be held between July 1 and August 31.

Section 4. Special expenditures may be approved by the Board with a super majority (two-thirds vote). The Board must notify the Congregation in writing or by electronic means of the approved special expenditures and rationale. A special expenditure is defined as an expense greater than one-third of the total Congregation budget.

Section 5. The yearly dues of the Congregation shall be presented as part of the yearly budget.

A. The primary source of revenue is membership dues and the Board is encouraged to set the dues to cover the anticipated operating expenses of the synagogue.

B. No dues are assessed for honorary and complimentary membership.

Section 6. Fees for attending the Congregation Religious School shall be proposed as part of the yearly budget, specifying both member and non-member tuitions.

A. A child with at least one Jewish parent may attend Religious School, regardless of membership in the Congregation.

Section 7. The President and Treasurer shall have the right to waive any dues, fees, or assessments against any Congregation member or persons seeking full membership, for reasons of financial hardship. These proceedings shall be held in strict confidence.

Section 8. Fees for participation of non-members in synagogue affairs may be set by the Board.

Article VII, Religious Participation. All members have the right and responsibility to participate in all aspects of religious worship.

Article VIII, Parliamentary Practice. “Robert’s Rules of Order” shall be standard for parliamentary procedures at all Congregation and Board meetings when they do not conflict with the Constitution of Beth Israel Congregation.

Article IX, Amendments to the Constitution

Section 1. This constitution may be amended.

Section 2. To ensure adequate time for review, Congregation must be notified in writing or by electronic means of any proposed amendments at least two weeks prior to the Congregation acting on such amendments.

A. Only amendments closely related to the subject and meaning of the proposed change or addition may be adopted.

B. A quorum is required to act upon a constitutional amendment. A quorum consists of at least a simple majority of the entire membership and includes at least one officer, and excludes honorary members, associate members, and complimentary members. Members of a quorum include those attending in-person and virtually and through the use of a quorum proxy—a proxy for the sole purpose of obtaining a quorum and nothing else. A sample quorum proxy is found in Appendix A of this Constitution.

C. Voting procedures are found in Article V Section 5 and require a simple majority of the congregation to support the amendment(s).

Article X, Dissolution of the Congregation.

Section 1. Decision. If the congregation of Beth Israel Congregation decides to end operations and its existence as a synagogue, a majority of remaining members of the congregation in good standing shall meet to determine the best course forward with either complete dissolution or a merger with another synagogue.

A. To ensure adequate time for review, the Congregation must be notified in writing or by electronic means of any and all details of any dissolution or merger proposals at least two weeks prior to the Congregation acting.

B. A quorum is required to act on any proposal and consists of at least a simple majority of the membership, and excludes honorary members, associate members and complimentary members. Members of a quorum include those attending in-person and virtually and through the use of a quorum proxy—a proxy for the sole purpose of obtaining a quorum and nothing else. A sample quorum proxy is found in Appendix A of this Constitution.

Section 2. Merger. Should members negotiate and approve a merger with another synagogue:

A. Assets shall be liquidated after termination of operations,

B. Payment of all outstanding debts shall be made, and

C. Remaining assets will be transferred to the new synagogue per the negotiated agreement.

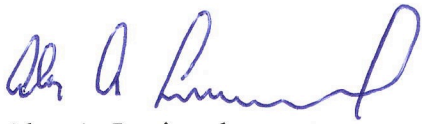

D. An attorney may be hired to conclude any outstanding business, such as closure of accounts, and removal of tax-exempt status and grant reporting requirements.

Section 3. Dissolution Without Merger. Should members decide to end operations:

A. Assets shall be distributed for one or more tax-exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The asset transfer recipient shall be determined by a vote by the membership under the process found in Section 1 of this Article.

B. The distribution may include, but not be limited to, Mazon: A Jewish Response to Hunger, the Jewish National Fund, the Federal government, the State of Maryland, or St. Mary's County for a public purpose.

Approved by the Congregation on April 28, 2024.
